

Press release from the Woodbury Democratic Town Committee
For immediate release

For more information

Contact Lesa Peters, DTC Chairperson @ 203-232-8231 or lcspeters@earthlink.net

Free Democratic Family Picnic on Sept. 28
Features November Candidates, Elected Officials, Picnic Fare

WOODBURY — Traditional picnic fare and appearances by candidates for the November 4th election will highlight a Democratic Family Picnic to be held from 2 to 4 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 28, at the Hollow Park in Woodbury.

Democratic candidates for State and Federal offices including Governor Dan Malloy, Lt. Governor Nancy Wyman, Secretary of the State Denise Merrill, Comptroller Kevin Lembo, State Treasurer Denise Nappier, Attorney General George Jepsen, Congresswoman Elizabeth Esty (5th CD), Don Orsini, candidate for CT Senate (32nd district), and Joe Poletta, candidate for CT Assembly (68th district) have been invited to participate. Senators Blumenthal and Murphy have also been invited to attend.

The picnic provides an opportunity for citizens to communicate with candidates prior to the November 4th election. DTCs from the 10 towns in the 32nd state senate district, including Bethlehem, Bridgewater, Middlebury, Oxford, Roxbury, Seymour, Southbury, Washington, Watertown, and Woodbury, have organized the old-fashioned picnic and campaign kickoff event.

Attendees will enjoy traditional picnic fare, prepared and donated by members of the participating organizations. Admission is free.

Ms. Peters encouraged voters to attend: 'Events such as this picnic give voters an opportunity to meet the candidates and elected officials, and to discuss topics of mutual concern with fellow Democrats. Please join us.'

For more information about the event, call Ms. Peters at (203) 232-8231, or visit www.woodburydems.org.