Woodbury Democrats to hold Oktoberfest dinner on Oct. 18

WOODBURY — Election-year politics and German cuisine will highlight Woodbury Democrats' gala Oktoberfest celebration on Saturday, Oct. 18, at the Woodbury Senior/Community Center in Woodbury.

The Oktoberfest dinner, starting at 5:30 p.m., will include appearances by Democratic candidates for state and federal legislative office in the Nov. 4 elections. Among the guests who will speak at the event are U.S. Rep. Chris Murphy, who currently represents the Fifth Congressional District; retired diplomat and Woodbury resident John McCarthy, seeking the seat for the 32nd State Senate District; and Nick Creed, seeking election as representative for the 66th District in the State Assembly.

The dinner menu will offer a full menu of homemade German salads, entrees and desserts, along with cold beverages, coffee and tea, and German beer on tap. German music and a silent auction of donated goods and services also will be featured.

Admission to the dinner, sponsored by the Woodbury Democratic Town Committee, is open to the public. The fee will be $20 payable at the door, with a price of $5 for children from 5 to 12 and no charge for children under 5. Proceeds will benefit the electoral and community activities of the Woodbury Democratic Town Committee.

For more information about the Oktoberfest event, call DTC chairperson Lesa Peters at (203) 263-4404 or visit www.woodburydems.org.
