

A press release from the Woodbury Democratic Town Committee
Contact: Bob Taylor, DTC publicity, tel. 263-5997
For immediate release

Reception honors 2009 Grasso Scholar Gen Dorgan

WOODBURY – Gen Dorgan, a 2009 Nonnewaug High School graduate who will begin studies this fall at Kenyon College in Ohio, was honored recently as recipient of this year's Ella Grasso Memorial Scholarship at a reception held by the Woodbury Democratic Town Committee. The annual scholarship, sponsored by the DTC and administered by the Woodbury Scholarship Fund, recognizes student accomplishment and interest in pursuing studies in the fields of government and political science. Ms. Dorgan, previously recognized by the DTC for exemplary student leadership as a volunteer in town Democratic activities, earned several academic awards and participated in literary, debate, social justice and music groups at Nonnewaug, serving as editor-in-chief of the school literary magazine and performing in the NHS jazz band, brass quintet, pit band and chamber singers. She plans to pursue studies in history and journalism at Kenyon. Pictured at the reception (left to right) are the recipient's parents, Peter and Pam Dorgan of Woodbury; Gen Dorgan; and Woodbury DTC chairperson Lesa Peters.